HUSKERS DEBUT IN DILLON TENNIS CENTER

Nebraska enters a new era in both the men's and women's tennis programs in 2015-16, as the Huskers move into a world-class home facility at the Sid and Hazel Dillon Tennis Center.

Nebraska, which has played at several different indoor and outdoor facilities over the past 40 years, finally has a home within steps of the UNL campus.

"It is an exciting time to be part of the Nebraska program," Coach Scott Jacobson said. "We have been watching this great new facility rise from the ground up, both indoors and outdoors over the past couple years. The last six to nine months have really provided a life-changing experience for our program, and we're incredibly excited about the future."

After a solid fall season of training, the 2016 Huskers can't wait to hit the court for the first official dual match at the Dillon Tennis Center on Friday, Jan. 22, against South Dakota State.

The dual with the Jackrabbits will be the first of 19 home matches for the Huskers at the Dillon Tennis Center this spring, including six Big Ten battles.

Nebraska, which has advanced to six NCAA tournaments since 2005 under Jacobson, hopes its first season at the Dillon Tennis Center will keep the program on an upward trajectory. Last season, the Big Red produced a four-match improvement in the win column with a 12-12 overall record.

The 2016 campaign will mark the third year of a rebuilding phase that followed four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances from 2010 to 2013 that culminated with a 2013 Big Ten Conference title and a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16.

With a balanced roster led by the senior trio of Maggy Lehmicke, Mackenna Maddox-Herr and Lauren Wagner, the Huskers think they have the experience, talent, training facilities and competitive home to begin climbing the ladder in the Big Ten.

Lehmicke returns after playing every match of 2015 at the No. 1 singles spot for the Huskers. The senior from Kirkland, Wash., finished 10-13 overall, including 2-9 in Big Ten play. She also teamed with 2016 junior Lisa Andersson to form one of the Big Ten's most formidable doubles tandems. Lehmicke and Andersson rolled to an 18-6 record at No. 2 doubles, including 10-1 against Big Ten opponents.

Nebraska's captain, Lehmicke has been a star for the Huskers off the court as well. She is a two-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and academic All-Big Ten selection. As a junior she added a Big Ten Sportsmanship Award after claiming a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award as a sophomore in 2014.

While Lehmicke returns at the top of the Husker lineup, Maddox-Herr expects to provide more consistency and leadership. Maddox-Herr posted a 4-9 mark at No. 6 singles last season, including 1-7 in Big Ten play. She also paired with Katerina Matysova to go 8-14 overall and 2-9 in the Big Ten at No. 3 doubles. Maddox-Herr, who transferred into the Husker program after spending her first two seasons at BYU, also proved herself as a leader for the young Huskers by claiming a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award in 2015.

Andersson and fellow junior Mary Hanna return to fill spots in the heart of the Husker lineup. Andersson went 12-11 in singles last season as one of Nebraska's most versatile performers from the No. 3, 4, 5 and 6 slots.

Hanna played primarily out of the No. 3 spot in the lineup last season, managing an 8-13 overall record, including a 3-7 record in Big Ten play. She will be looking for a new doubles partner this season, after competing alongside departed senior Izabella Zgierska to finish with a 14-7 record at the No. 1 doubles spot a year ago.

The Huskers also welcome the return of talented sophomores Katerina Matysova and Spurti Shivalingaiah in 2016. Matysova competed out of the No. 4, 5 and 6 singles positions as a redshirt freshman in 2015 and finished with a 12-10 overall record.

Shivalingaiah reeled off a 10-match winning streak at the No. 4 and 5 spots as a redshirt freshman in 2015, but missed nine matches with a wrist injury. She finished the season with an 11-2 singles mark, and is hoping for a fully healthy season in 2016.

While the Huskers return seven experienced contributors in 2016, they welcome a talented four-player freshman class looking to help the Big Red take a step forward in the Big Ten.

Vasanti Shinde is a leading contender to make an instant impact. The freshman from Pune, India, was ranked as the No. 158 Junior by ITF.

"Vasanti's greatest strength is the heaviness with which she strikes the ball off of both her forehand and backhand side," Jacobson said. "A great benefit to her is her lefty spin serve, as well as her attacking style of play. Vasanti showed great promise in the fall, and we feel she can help the program in a big way this coming spring."

Spaniard Paula Del Cueto Castillo also could provide immediate contributions for the Huskers.

"Paula is a phenomenal doubles player with tremendous instincts," Jacobson said. "She has a very heavy forehand and a biting slice backhand that is difficult for opponents to handle. Her fitness improved dramatically this fall in addition to her lower body strength. We believe she will have a positive affect on our team in both singles and doubles this spring."

Nebraska native Sydney Harlow also could play a role for the Huskers this season. The 2014 Missouri Valley Player of the Year, Harlow also won the Class A Singles championship in 2014.

Elizabeth Gould, a two-time state champion from Georgia, adds more talent and depth to a freshman class eager to help the Huskers build their next NCAA Tournament team.

SCOTT JACOBSON

Head Coach 25th Season Blue Earth, Minn.

HONORS & AWARDS

Big Ten Regular-Season Champions (2013)
Big Ten Co-Coach of the Year (2012)
Big 12 Coach of the Year (2005, 2010)
Six NCAA Tournament Appearances (2005, 2006, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013)
Nebraska Herman Award (Team GPA) (2005, 2006, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014)

JACOBSON'S COACHING PHILOSOPHY

"By helping our student-athletes develop the values of dedication, cooperation, compassion and the ability to handle adversity with courage, we help them grow as both tennis players and as people. Through a belief in one another and a positive approach to competition, we can build meaningful relationships off the tennis court and continue a winning tradition on it."

Entering his 25th season as Nebraska women's tennis head coach, Scott Jacobson has had his Huskers consistently ranked among the top 75 teams nationally for nearly 20 years, while making regular NCAA Tournament appearances the past decade.

A three-time conference coach of the year, Jacobson has guided the Husker program to six NCAA Tournament bids in the past 10 seasons. He also led the Big Red to the Big Ten Conference regular-season title in 2013.

From 2010 to 2013, Jacobson's Huskers produced the most successful stretch in school history, winning 20 or more matches for four straight seasons to advance to four consecutive NCAA tournaments. The Huskers finished No. 16 in the final ITA rankings in both 2012 and 2013, including the program's first NCAA Sweet 16 appearance in 2013.

While the Huskers produced a golden age in the program from 2010 to 2013, Coach Jacobson's program has been defined by consistent success. In fact, Nebraska produced 17 consecutive winning seasons from 1997 through 2013, with the Huskers producing top-75 final national rankings 15 times.

Although Nebraska's string of winning campaigns came to an end with an 8-17 overall record in 2014, Jacobson is confident the foundation for more future success is firmly in place. Jacobson, who owns 353 victories at the helm of the Huskers, has averaged nearly 15 wins per season at NU, while laying the foundation for the Nebraska program brick by brick since his first season in 1991-92.

Success at Nebraska goes far beyond winning, Jacobson emphasizes excellence on the court, in the classroom and in the community.

A shining example of the total-person concept of Nebraska women's tennis is Mary Weatherholt. The greatest player in the history of the program, Weatherholt capped her record-setting career as a first-team All-American in both singles and doubles. She was the NCAA runner-up in singles in 2013, while teaming with fellow first-team All-American Patricia Veresova to advance to the NCAA Elite Eight in doubles action in 2013.

Off the court, Weatherholt claimed one of the NCAA's top overall honors as a winner of an NCAA Top Ten Award in 2014. She was the Big Ten Women's Tennis Athlete of the Year in both 2012 and 2013, and she was Nebraska's Female Student-Athlete of the Year in 2012-13. Weatherholt added a Big Ten Sportsmanship Award, while claiming the ITA Cissie Leary Sportsmanship Award, which is presented to the nation's top women's tennis student-athlete.

During his career at Nebraska, Jacobson's Huskers have earned numerous academic all-conference accolades. Jacobson also guided the athletic career of two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American Imke Reimers. The women's tennis team also earned the Herman Award four straight years from 2011 to 2014. The award is presented to the NU team with the top overall grade-point average.

In 2013, NU had its most successful season to date under Jacobson. The team earned its highest ranking in school history at No. 6 midway through the season before finishing at No. 16. The team went to the school's first NCAA Sweet 16 and hosted NCAA Tournament first- and second-round matches for the first time in Husker history.

Jacobson guided Weatherholt to 208 career combined wins, the program's first player to reach 200 victories. In addition to their first-team All-America honors, Weatherholt and Veresova earned first-team All-Big Ten accolades, while fellow senior Stefanie Weinstein claimed second-team honors.

Nebraska's 24-6 final record in 2013 included a 10-1 Big Ten mark and the program's first Big Ten regular-season title in just its second season in the tradition-rich conference.

The Huskers' 2013 season followed on the heels of a 2012 campaign that featured a 24-5 overall record and a 9-2 Big Ten mark in Nebraska's first year in the conference. Weatherholt, who returned to the court after suffering a knee injury as a sophomore in 2011, again led the Huskers along with Veresova, Weinstein, Janine Weinreich and senior Madeleine Geibert. A three-time all-conference pick both athletically and academically, Geibert established the NU record with 181 combined wins before Weatherholt broke the record the following season.

Weatherholt, who earned her first Big Ten Women's Tennis Athlete-of-the-Year award, also claimed a Big Ten Sportsmanship award. She qualified for the 2012 NCAA Singles Championships for the first time in her career, but lost in the first round.

Jacobson earned Big Ten Co-Coach-of-the-Year honors after leading the Big Red to the second round of the NCAA Tournament

In Nebraska's final season in the Big 12 Conference in 2011, Jacobson led the Huskers to a 20-win campaign despite dealing with the loss of Weatherholt to a knee injury early in the fall.

NU finished fourth in a loaded Big 12, producing a 7-4 conference mark while qualifying for the their third straight NCAA Tournament. Geibert and Veresova both earned All-Big 12 honors.

Jacobson capped his association with the Big 12 Conference by leading seven Huskers to Big 12 individual titles and 26 first-team All-Big 12 awards.

In 2010, Nebraska posted the first 20-win campaign in school history, finishing with a 22-6 overall record that included a 9-2 Big 12 mark and a third-place conference finish. Jacobson was named Big 12 Coach of the Year for the second time, while leading the Huskers to their first-ever NCAA Tournament victory with a first-round win over Illinois.

Jacobson, who led Nebraska to its first NCAA Tournament with an 18-4 record and a 9-2 Big 12 mark in 2005, was also the 2005 Big 12 Coach of the Year. The 2006 team added a 17-10 overall record while featuring Big 12 Freshman-of-the-Year Kim Hartmann on its way to a second straight NCAA Tournament bid.

Before becoming head coach in 1991, Jacobson helped the Nebraska men's team to an 84-86 record as an assistant from 1979 to 1989. He also spent 11 years as the assistant director of the Tennis and Life Camp in St. Peter, Minn. He has been an employee of the camp for 23 years.

In 1995, Jacobson was awarded the David Aasen Award by the staff of the Tennis and Life Camp. The award honors enthusiasm, energy, sense of humor, high standards of sportsmanship, a love of teaching and a genuine concern for others.

Originally from Blue Earth, Minn., Jacobson has been involved in many activities in Nebraska. In the past he has been an instructor for the Lincoln Racquet Club and coordinator for the Husker Netters Booster Club.

GERMAN DALMAGRO

Associate Head Coach Third Season West Florida (2005)

HONORS & AWARDS

Nebraska Herman Award (Team GPA, 2014)
All-American (Doubles, 2004)
All-American (Singles/Doubles, 2002-03)
No. 3 National Ranking (Doubles)
No. 11 National Ranking (Singles)

DALMAGRO'S COACHING PHILOSOPHY

"I believe in assisting the student-athletes to reach and experience their full potential. To have an environment that encourages the athletes to learn and develop on and off the court. By using the values of hard work, dedication, passion, discipline, mental toughness and integrity, while focusing on the process, and not so much on the end results. My goal is to inspire and offer a positive approach in all areas that will help each athlete be the best they can be, and become a better person overall."

German Dalmagro (pronounced Her-mahn Dal-mahg-ro) is in his third season on Coach Scott Jacobson's staff at Nebraska in 2015-16.

In 2014-15, the Huskers produced a four-match improvement in the win column from their 2013-14 campaign, which was Dalmagro's first on the Nebraska staff.

With a solid returning nucleus and some talented newcomers, the Huskers hope to make even more improvements while playing their first season at the Sid and Hazel Dillon Tennis Center in 2015-16.

Dalmagro is a former member of the Kansas women's tennis coaching staff, spending six seasons with the Jayhawks from 2006 through 2013.

In his first season with the Huskers in 2013-14, Nebraska claimed its fourth straight Herman Award for the highest team GPA among all Nebraska women's sports. Four Huskers earned academic All-Big Ten Ten honors in 2014, while seven Huskes added academic All-Big Ten accolades in 2015.

In his final season with the Jayhawks in 2012-13, the team went 11-10 and made it to the Big 12 Tournament where they fell in the second round. At KU, his responsibilities included on-court coaching, organizing travel and aiding in recruiting. His strong ties to the southern states landed standout products for KU during his time on staff. Dalmagro joined Kansas following a very successful playing and coaching career at Division II West Florida.

Dalmagro was an assistant coach of both the men's and women's teams at UWF prior to joining the KU staff. During his year with West Florida, both teams reached the semifinals of the NCAA Tournament. Dalmagro's coaching stay at West Florida was brief, but his impact produced one of the most decorated tennis players in school history.

Dalmagro had a successful individual career at UWF and Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College. Dalmagro was a member of UWF's back-to-back NCAA Division II Championship teams in 2004 and 2005, and was part of the 2005 Gulf South Conference Champion team and 2004 Gulf South runner-up squad. Dalmagro's career was highlighted by All-America honors in 2004 (doubles), 2003 (singles and doubles) and 2002 (singles and doubles). Dalmagro was ranked nationally as high as No. 3 in doubles and No. 11 in singles.

Dalmagro saw success off the court while at West Florida, as he helped the Argonauts earn the 2004 National Award for highest team GPA and was named to the Dean's List.

Prior to transferring to West Florida, Dalmagro played at ABAC. At ABAC, he was the NJCAA Player of the Year in 2003 and the individual national champion in 2002. Dalmagro's tennis coaching experience stretches beyond West Florida. In 2004 and 2005, Dalmagro served as the head coach at the Nike Tennis Camp in Lawrenceville, N.J., and also coached at Abraham Baldwin College in Tifton, Ga., from 2002 to 2003.

Dalmagro graduated from West Florida, earning a degree in business administration with a specialization in management.

Shawn Eichorst came to the University of Nebraska in 2012 with an incredible passion for the University and for its student-athletes. As the leader of a tradition-rich program with 24 intercollegiate teams, 600-plus student-athletes and more than 300 full-time employees, Eichorst has relied on a strong value system and a student-centered approach to lead the Department. Nebraska's primary mission is to provide student-athletes with the resources and support they need to be successful in academics, athletics and life. The health, safety and welfare of student-athletes is Nebraska's top priority and at the essence of every decision made.

Nebraska has a history of providing first-class coaches, staff and facilities for its students. Additionally, since Eichorst arrived in Lincoln, resources and services in every student-athlete support unit have been improved and enhanced, including academics, athletic medicine, life skills, nutrition, sports psychology, strength and conditioning and in the Nebraska Athletics Performance Laboratory (NAPL).

Eichorst has continued to aggressively move Nebraska forward with several new initiatives to enhance the student-athlete experience. The Department will provide state-of-the-art laptop computers to all student-athletes beginning in the summer of 2015 and the University will now provide four-year, full cost of attendance-based scholarships for all scholarship student-athletes in every sport. Also beginning in the summer of 2015, every Husker letterwinner who graduates and has exhausted his or her eligibility will be provided assistance to either obtain an internship; study abroad or attend graduate or professional school.

Eichorst has made more than 350 public appearances around the state, and his monthly radio show and "Connecting on Campus" online column provide the opportunity for him to further connect and share the incredible activities, initiatives and accomplishments that take place at Nebraska. As a member of the Chancellor's Senior Administrative Team, Eichorst maintains a strong connection and collaboration between the University and Department of Athletics.

A highly respected national leader, Eichorst was appointed in 2015 to the Division I Football Oversight Committee. He was the first Director of Athletics from any conference to visit the Big Ten Conference-based Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC) at its Champaign, Ill., headquarters. The CIC is a highly successful academic-based consortium of 15 schools, including all 14 in the Big Ten Conference. Nebraska is leading the Big Ten and the CIC in several areas, including Digital Humanities and head injury research.

Under Eichorst, Nebraska extended its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-Americans to 320 and its nation-leading total of NCAA Top Ten Award winners to 17, after Mary Weatherholt (women's tennis) earned the honor in 2014. In 2014-15, more than 400 awards were presented at the 25th Anniversary Student-Athlete Recognition Banquet—A Night at the Lied. Over three commencements, 118 student-athletes earned undergraduate or graduate degrees and the Big Ten Conference honored 205 Husker student-athletes with Academic All-Big Ten awards. For the first time in school history, all Nebraska teams had an NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 950 or higher, as reported in May of 2015. The Nebraska football (second consecutive year) and rifle (third consecutive year) programs received public recognition for having an APR in the top 10 percent in their respective sports. In addition, five Husker teams (women's basketball, softball, women's tennis, volleyball and women's golf) had a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 100 percent, as reported in the fall of 2014.

On Dec. 4, 2014, Eichorst announced the hiring of Mike Riley as the Huskers' new head football coach. As one of the most respected and sought-after coaches in the profession, Riley's hire was highly praised by prominent members of the national media, the coaching fraternity, Riley's former players, and current and former Nebraska student-athletes. In Riley, Eichorst secured one of the finest football minds in the world and great positive-thinking teacher of young men.

In 2014-15, the Nebraska women's bowling team earned the school's seventh national title and fifth since bowling became an NCAA sport in 2004. The Husker men's track and field team won the Big Ten Indoor Championship and 13 Husker teams competed in NCAA postseason action, including bowling, football, volleyball, women's basketball, wrestling, softball, men's and women's gymnastics, rifle, and men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field. Nebraska produced 36 All-Americans who won 51 awards.

Nebraska's fan support continues to be unparalleled in college athletics. In fact, in 2014-15 top 15 national rankings for average attendance were reached across five sports—football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball and baseball. A tribute to loyal Husker fans, two sports lead the nation with consecutive home sellout streaks, including football (340) and volleyball for regular-season action (188).

In 2013-14, Nebraska became one of only two NCAA institutions – and the first Big Ten program in history – to qualify for a football bowl game, and advance to NCAA postseason in the major team sports of volleyball, soccer, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. Additionally, Nebraska was the only institution to win a postseason game in six of those seven sports.

Under Eichorst's leadership, Nebraska continues to focus on improving its facilities and the game-day experience at all athletic venues. In the summer of 2015, a world-class Soccer and Tennis Complex, located just north of the Devaney Center and Nebraska Innovation Campus, was completed. A new center-hung video board and sound system was installed in the Devaney Center in 2015 to improve the game-day experience for volleyball, wrestling and men's and women's gymnastics. In 2014, the largest wireless network system at a college football stadium in history was installed in Memorial Stadium, along with a state-of-the-art sound system.

In the summer of 2013, a Memorial Stadium expansion also added the innovative NAPL inside East Stadium next to the Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3). That same year, Nebraska's men's and women's basketball teams became the primary tenants at Pinnacle Bank Arena, and the renovated Devaney Center became the home for Husker volleyball, wrestling and the men's and women's gymnastics programs.

Eichorst came to Nebraska after serving as Director of Athletics at Miami in 2011 and 2012. He hired legendary men's basketball coach Jim Larrañaga, who led Miami to the NIT Second Round in his first season and ACC regular-season and tournament titles as well and the NCAA Sweet 16 in his second. The women's basketball program posted its highest national ranking in school history (No. 5) and advanced to the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament. The women's tennis team advanced to the NCAA Elite Eight for the fourth straight season, and the baseball team made its 40th consecutive NCAA appearance. The women's soccer team posted its first NCAA Tournament win in school history, and the volleyball team made its third straight NCAA Tournament trip.

Before heading to Miami, Eichorst was the Deputy Director of Athletics at Wisconsin. He was the Chief Operating Officer and oversaw the department's daily operations, as well as Bo Ryan's men's basketball program under the direction of Director of Athletics and former Husker Barry Alvarez.

From 2004 to 2006, Eichorst served as the Senior Associate Director of Athletics for Administration at South Carolina, overseeing the department's daily operations, as well as the football and baseball programs under legendary coaches Lou Holtz, Steve Spurrier and Ray Tanner, respectively.

From 1999 to 2003, Eichorst served as the Director of Athletics at Wisconsin-Whitewater, which produced four top 10-percent finishes in the NACDA Directors Cup, one NCAA team title and two NCAA runner-up finishes. The program also featured 11 CoSIDA Academic All-America selections.

A native of Lone Rock, Wis., Eichorst was an all-conference defensive back, three-time letterwinner and 1990 football team captain for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. He graduated magna cum laude in business from UW-Whitewater in 1990 and in 2015 was awarded the Distinguished Alumni Award for Professional Achievement. He earned a law degree from Marquette Law School in 1995, practiced law in Milwaukee until 1999 and is a past member of the State Bar of Wisconsin Board of Governors. He served as an assistant adjunct professor of law at Marquette, where he taught classes in sports law. He serves on the Marquette University National Sports Law Institute Board of Advisors and in 2006, Marquette awarded Eichorst the Sports Law Alumnus of the Year Award. He is also a graduate of the Sports Management Institute and serves on its Executive Committee.

Shawn and his wife Kristin have three sons: Jack, Joseph and Bennett.

PAT LOGSDON

Executive Associate A.D./Administration & Senior Woman Administrator

A member of the Nebraska Athletic Department since 1979, Pat Logsdon serves as Executive Associate Athletic Director for Administration. She is Nebraska's Senior Woman Administrator to the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference and serves on the Big Ten Sports Management Council.

Logsdon's duties include oversight on all administrative issues and operational functions of the Athletic Director's office. She also oversees the areas of Department Travel, including bowl and postseason travel, the Department's Gender Equity Plan, equipment and serves as a liaison to adidas.

In addition, Logsdon manages student-athlete end of season evaluations and exit interviews. She also serves as the sport administrator for volleyball, beach volleyball, softball and men's and women's gymnastics.

Previously, Logsdon spent 23 seasons in football operations, including six seasons as NU's director of football operations, the first female in Division I to serve in that capacity. She handled organization of all recruiting functions, supervised compliance activities and coordinated all football administrative operations, including travel and practice operations.

Logsdon earned a bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska.

STEVE WATERFIELD

Executive Associate A.D./Performance & Strategic Research

Steve Waterfield is in his third season ast Nebraska and currently serves a executive associate athletic director for performance and strategic research.

Waterfield assists Director of Athletics Shawn Eichorst with the administration of the football program and serves as the sport administrator for men's and women's tennis. He also oversees athletic medicine, strength and conditioning, sports nutrition, Lewis Training Table, the Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory (NAPL) and strategic research and sports analytics.

Waterfield is the athletic department liaison to the institution's Center for Brain, Biology and Behavior (CB3), located in the East Stadium Research Facility.

Waterfield joined Nebraska after two years as a senior administrator at Miami. While in Coral Gables, Waterfield oversaw sports medicine, athletic training, strength and conditioning and human resources, and served as the direct sport administrator for the football and men's basketball programs.

Prior to Miami, Waterfield spent seven years at Wisconsin, serving under Director of Athletics Barry Alvarez as an associate athletic director for student services. Waterfield oversaw compliance, academic services and sports medicine, while also serving as sport administrator for the men's and women's soccer and men's and women's swimming and diving programs.

Waterfield went to Wisconsin after spending five years as an assistant director of compliance at Ohio State.

Waterfield holds a law degree, a master's in business administration and a master's in sports management from Ohio State and a bachelor's degree in political science from Kenyon College. ## HONORS & AWARDS

Big Ten Distinguished Scholar (2014, 2015)
Academic All-Big Ten (2014, 2015)
Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll (Fall 2012, 2013; Spring 2013, 2014, 2015)
Big Ten Sportsmanship Award (2015)
Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award (2014)
Tom Osborne Citizenship Team (2014)

2015-16 OUTLOOK

Maggy Lehmicke plans to continue to lead the Huskers on and off the court in 2016. The senior from Kirkland, Wash., competed out of the No. 1 singles and No. 2 doubles positions as a team captain in 2015. She is a two-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and academic All-Big Ten selection who has been honored by Nebraska and the Big Ten for her commitment to the community.

2014-15: JUNIOR

Lehmicke served as captain of a young Husker team, playing every match at the No.1 singles spot and remaining consistent with Lisa Andersson at the No. 2 doubles spot. Lehmicke netted a 10-13 singles mark while going 2-9 in Big Ten play. She gathered an 18-6 doubles record, going 10-1 against Big Ten opponents.

In her junior year, Lehmicke nabbed two victories over opponents of nationally ranked teams, including her victory over No. 51 Denver's Maureen Slattery and her impressive 6-0, 6-1 win over No. 52 Indiana's Katie Klyczek.

Pairing up with Andersson for the majority of the spring season, the duo pressed their way to a notable 15-4 mark, going 10-1 in Big Ten action. The pair had an eight-match winning streak between March 6 and April 3, grabbing wins over six Big Ten opponents and three nationally ranked teams.

Lehmicke distinguished herself through sportsmanship and ethical behavior, earning her the 2015 Big Ten Sportsmanship Award. As one of 14 recipients, she earned the honor based on her academic success and citizenship off the tennis court. She was also a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar and an academic All-Big Ten selection for the second consecutive season.

2013-14: SOPHOMORE

Lehmicke was one of two sophomores on an extremely young Husker roster. She led the team from the No. 1 singles and doubles spots. Lehmicke put together a 21-13 overall singles record with a 13-8 spring showing and went 2-8 in the Big Ten. She had a nine-match winning streak to start the season from Jan. 21 against Creighton through March 9 against Miami (Ohio). In doubles, Lehmicke partnered with Mary Hanna during the spring, earning a 10-8 record and finishing at 16-16 overall. Lehmicke and Hanna saw a seven-match winning streak between Jan. 31 and March 9.

A leader in the classroom and the community, Lehmicke earned academic All-Big Ten honors while claiming a prestigious Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award. She earned spots on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in both semesters of 2013-14, and captured a spot on the inaugural Tom Osborne Citizenship Team. She helped the Husker women's tennis team claim its fourth consecutive Herman Team GPA Award.

2012-13: FRESHMAN

Lehmicke was one of two freshmen to join the Huskers for the 2012-13 season along with Lauren Wagner. Lehmicke saw a great deal of action on the court for Nebraska in her first year, playing at No. 3, 4, and 5 singles as well as No. 2 and 3 doubles.

Lehmicke finished with a 21-11 singles record, including a 20-9 spring mark. She went 7-4 in Big Ten play. Lehmicke went 3-0 at No. 3 singles, 9-4 at No. 4, and 8-5 at No. 5. She began the season with four straight victories before she dropped two matches, then reeled off a nine-match winning streak between Feb. 9 and March 10. Lehmicke split her matches against ranked foes at 1-1.

Lehmicke showed potential on the doubles court, where she accumulated a 13-12 record with an 11-10 spring showing and a 2-5 mark in the Big Ten. Lehmicke teamed with three partners in 2013. Her primary partner was Izabella Zgierska, but she tacked on a couple matches with Maike Zeppernick and Patricia Veresova. Lehmicke and Veresova went 2-0 as a pair with matches against Illinois State and Colorado State on Feb. 15 and 17, respectively, her only matches from the No. 2 spot. Lehmicke and Zeppernick went 1-1 with performances against Notre Dame and Ohio State on Jan. 27 and Feb. 2, respectively.

Lehmicke and Zgierska went 8-9 in the regular season and 2-4 against Big Ten foes. The duo unleashed an eight-match win streak that started Feb. 10 against Baylor and ended March 8 versus Illinois, all from the No. 3 position. The tandem ended the regular season on a six-match losing streak that started March 10.

Lehmicke debuted in Big Ten play against Ohio State on Feb. 2, where she lost at No. 5 singles and No. 3 doubles. She secured her first Big Ten victories against Iowa on March 5, where she played No. 3 doubles with Zgierska and No. 4 singles.

Lehmicke helped the team earn the Herman Award for the top team GPA of all Nebraska's women's sports in 2013. She was named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Roll in the fall of 2012 and spring of 2013.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Lehmicke was a four-star recruit who had been ranked as high as No. 74 nationally. Lehmicke, who attended Chrysalis School in Woodinville, Wash., was ranked No. 2 overall in the state as well as No. 2 in the Northwest region. She competed in a variety of major tournaments, including the USTA National Championships.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Leo Lehmicke and Cynthia Anonsen, Maggy Lehmicke was born, Nov. 1, 1993, in Bellevue, Wash. She has one brother, Max. Maggy is a journalism major in Nebraska's College of Journalism and Mass Communications. Her hobbies include writing, fashion design and yoga.

WHY MAGGY CHOSE NEBRASKA

"I'd always wanted to play for a Big Ten school, but what separated Nebraska from the other schools was the team chemistry. I love all of the girls on the team and the coaches are fantastic. I also met with a lot of people in the journalism school on my official visit and fell in love with that as well. It's a strong program here, and the faculty are such friendly people."

2015-16 OUTLOOK

Mackenna Maddox-Herr is in her second season with the Huskers in 2016. In her first season on the court at Nebraska in 2015 after transferring from BYU, Maddox-Herr provided leadership on and off the court. She expects to do the same in 2016 alongside fellow seniors Maggy Lehmicke and Lauren Wagner.

In addition to providing competitive play in the bottom half of the Husker lineup, Maddox-Herr is a solid student and outstanding citizen off the court. She earned a prestigious Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award for her commitment to the community in 2015.

2014-15: JUNIOR

In her first season as a Husker, Maddox-Herr provided an instant impact, contributing a 4-9 mark at the No. 6 singles spot. She finished with a 1-7 mark in Big Ten action.

Maddox-Herr paired with Lisa Andersson for the first match of the spring season and earned an 8-6 victory. Maddox-Herr went on to partner with Katerina Matysova to fill the No. 3 doubles spot for the remainder of the spring season, and the duo notched an 8-14 overall record that included a 2-9 effort in Big Ten play.

Off the court, Maddox-Herr earned impressive honors in her first season at Nebraska. She claimed a spot on the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team, which honors students who have completed at least six service projects and remain in good academic and athletic standing.

Maddox-Herr also earned a prestigious Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award, which honors outstanding community service while providing a positive influence on the team.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Maddox-Herr joined the Huskers after spending two seasons at BYU. She went 8-4 in singles play during the fall of her freshman season and advanced to the semifinals of the Cal Nike Invitational. She played all but two of her regular-season singles matches at the No. 5 position. She got a singles win over No. 51 San Diego and a doubles win over No. 70 Washington State.

Maddox-Herr compiled a 6-3 singles record in fall play of her sophomore season. She teamed up with Morgan Anderson-Littlewood for victory over No. 50 Denver's Maureen Slattery and Evy Van Genechten, 8-3.

Maddox-Herr earned a spot on the West Coast Conference Honor Roll both her freshman and sophomore year.

Maddox-Herr attended high school at McKinney Boyd in Texas, where she captured all-state honors in 2009, 2010 and 2012.

2015-16 OUTLOOK

Lauren Wagner enters 2016 season as one of three seniors on the Nebraska women's tennis team. Wagner competed well during the fall season, and plans to provide depth and leadership on and off the court for the Huskers.

2014-15: JUNIOR

Wagner saw limited action in the spring season but gained valuable experience in the fall where she competed in two invitationals.

Wagner competed strong at the Mizzou Invitational where she grabbed a 6-4, 7-5 win over Vivian Cheng of Columbia University en route to a 1-5 record during the fall campaign.

She paired with Izabella Zgierska at the Mizzou Invite to earn an 8-4 win over Columbia University's Laura MacMullin and Amy Li. Wagner added an 8-5 victory against MacMullin and Cheng while teaming up with Katerina Matysova.

In the classroom, Wagner captured academic All-Big Ten honors for the second consecutive season. She added a spot on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll during the spring semester.

2013-14: SOPHOMORE

Wagner was one of two sophomores on the Husker roster. She played solely at No. 6 singles and No. 3 doubles, finishing with a 0-10 overall singles record and 2-14 doubles mark. In the spring, she went 0-2 overall with both matches in Big Ten play. Wagner partnered with Hannah Sulz for both of her spring losses.

Wagner had a strong season off the court, earning academic All-Big Ten Honors and helping the team earn its fourth consecutive Herman Award. She also received a Nebraska Honors Medallion for having a GPA between 3.0-3.49.

2012-13: FRESHMAN

Wagner was one of two freshmen to join the Huskers for the 2012-13 campaign alongside Maggy Lehmicke. Wagner participated in one match for Nebraska in the spring, playing at No. 6 singles and No. 3 doubles.

Wagner held a 2-3 singles record for 2012-13, including a 1-0 mark in the spring. She went 1-3 during the fall and only faced one team in the spring. Wagner won her only singles outing against Maddie Buxton of Colorado State on Feb. 17 by a score of 2-6, 6-3, 1-0 (12-10).

Wagner went 0-3 in doubles. Her only spring match resulted in a 7-8 (4-7) loss from the No. 3 position alongside partner Maike Zeppernick against Mollie Cooper and Abby Stevens of Colorado State. Wagner took two losses paired with Zeppernick during the fall of 2012.

Wagner helped the team earn the Herman Award for the highest team GPA of all Nebraska's women's sports in 2013. She was also named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall of 2012. It was Wagner's first academic award as a student-athlete for the Huskers.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Wagner trained at Weil Tennis Academy in Ojai, Calif., along with her father's Robbie Wagner Tournament Training Center in Glen Cove, N.Y., throughout high school. She graduated from Laurel Springs School online in 2012.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Robbie and Shari Wagner, Lauren was born Aug. 12, 1994, in New York City, N.Y. Lauren is a marketing major at Nebraska and earned academic All-Big Ten honors in 2014 and 2015. She is a three-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll.

WHY LAUREN CHOSE NEBRASKA

"I loved the coaches, the other ladies on the team, the campus and the fact that academics are important among student-athletes."

2015-16 OUTLOOK

Lisa Andersson will aim at her most successful season on and off the court for the Huskers in 2016. The junior from Varberg, Sweden posted winning records in both singles and doubles as a regular in the Nebraska lineup as a sophomore.

Andersson produced 35 victories, including 20 on the doubles court, where she went 10-1 alongside Maggy Lehmicke in Big Ten play.

As a junior, Andersson hopes to help the Huskers make a move up the Big Ten standings and earn a trip to the NCAA Tournament.

2014-15: SOPHOMORE

As a sophomore, Andersson continued to make a major impact in the Nebraska lineup, playing in the No. 3, 4, 5 and 6 singles spots during the spring.

She gathered a 12-11 singles mark, going 2-9 in Big Ten action while earning an 18-5 doubles mark. She went 10-1 against Big Ten opponents.

Andersson played the majority of her singles matches at the No. 5 spot, accumulating a notable 9-4 mark. Andersson's efforts were highlighted by her nine-match winning streak between Feb. 8 and March 8, with all but three victories coming in straight sets.

Andersson teamed up with Maggy Lehmicke for the majority of the spring season where the duo posted an impressive 15-4 mark, including a 10-1 Big Ten mark. The pair had an eight-match winning streak (March 6-April 3) and posted wins over six Big Ten opponents and three nationally ranked teams.

In the classroom, Andersson claimed the first academic All-Big Ten honors of her career. She added recognition on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll for the third time during the 2015 spring semester.

2013-14: FRESHMAN

Andersson made an instant impact on the Husker lineup as a freshman in 2014. She played from the No. 3, 4, 5 and 6 positions in singles and the No. 2 and 3 spots in doubles.

Andersson paired with Brittany Brewster for her first two doubles matches at the No. 2 position, before dropping to the No. 3 spot to partner with Hannah Sulz for the remainder of the season.

Andersson finished the season with a 6-18 singles record, including a 6-12 spring mark. She went 0-7 in Big Ten matches. She was most successful at the No. 4 spot, where she finished 3-3.

In doubles, Andersson put together a 7-18 overall record that included a 5-13 spring showing. She was 0-6 in the Big Ten.

Andersson helped the team earn its fourth consecutive Herman Award for the highest cumulative team GPA among all women's sports at Nebraska.

She claimed spots on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall and spring semesters of 2013-14.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Andersson was ranked No. 7 nationally in her age group and No. 34 overall in Sweden. Andersson was a Swedish National Team Championship finalist and a National Team Championship Doubles runner-up.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Christina and Michael Andersson, Lisa has one brother, Marcus, 17. A native of Varberg, Sweden, Andersson is a good friend of former Husker Wiveca Swarting.

Andersson is majoring in business administration at Nebraska. She earned academic All-Big Ten honors in 2015. She is a three-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll.

WHY LISA CHOSE NEBRASKA

"I chose Nebraska because it provides great opportunities in both tennis and academics. The team is excellent and the coaches are very nice and easy to work with."

2015-16 OUTLOOK

Mary Hanna returns to the Nebraska women's tennis team for the 2016 season as one of two juniors, joining Lisa Andersson.

Hanna, who has been a regular in Nebraska's spring lineups the past two seasons, will be looking to put together her most successful campaign as a junior in 2016.

The Michigan native owns 57 combined wins in singles (24) and doubles (33) in her first two years at Nebraska.

2014-15: SOPHOMORE

Hanna was a staple in the Husker lineup for the second straight season as a sophomore in 2015. She filled the No. 3 singles spot for NU's lineup and earned an 8-13 mark, going 3-7 in Big Ten play. She paired with Izabella Zgierska for the majority of the spring season to tally a strong 14-7 record, going 4-7 against Big Ten opponents.

With seven-straight victories to begin the duo's spring campaign, the two went on to earn 14 wins, four against tough Big Ten opponents.

At the No. 3 singles spot, Hanna rode a four-match winning streak from Feb. 13 to Feb. 22, earning wins over Colorado State, Missouri, Wyoming and Illinois State. Hanna and Zgierska drove NU's doubles success with their impressive performance at the No. 1 spot.

Hanna continued her success off the court by earning academic All-Big Ten honors in the classroom. She was also a member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2015.

She also showed her commitment to the community by claiming a spot on the Tom Osborne Citizenship team, which awards student-athletes who have participated in six or more outreach events while being in good academic and athletic standing.

2013-14: FRESHMAN

Hanna broke into the Husker lineup as a regular No. 3 and 4 in singles and No. 1 in doubles.

Hanna finished with a 10-21 overall singles record, with a 7-18 spring mark and 2-9 record in the Big Ten.

She partnered with captain Maggy Lehmicke the whole season in doubles play. The duo earned a 10-8 spring record and tallied a 2-4 mark in Big Ten play. The pair had a seven-match winning streak from Jan. 31 through March 9.

Off the court, Hanna earned spots on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall and spring semesters of 2013-14 to help the Huskers earn their fourth straight Herman Award for the highest cumulative team GPA among all Nebraka women's sports.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Hanna achieved a ranking of No. 5 in the Midwest as well as being the No. 6 overall recruit from the Midwest. Hanna was victorious in doubles at the Midwest Open in 2012 and contended as a finalist at the Midwest Closed Invitational in 2011. Hanna boasted first-team All-Michigan honors for multiple years during her high school tennis career.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Mark Hanna, Mary was born on Nov. 8, 1995. She has one brother, Andrew, 21.

Mary has a pet parrot, spends time at her lake house and travels when not training for tennis. Her favorite food is pasta and she loves to play recreational volleyball.

An advertising and public relations major at Nebraska, she earned academic All-Big Ten honors in 2015. She is a three-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll.

WHY MARY CHOSE NEBRASKA

2015-16 OUTLOOK

Katerina Matysova returns for her third season in the Nebraska women's tennis program hoping to build on a strong redshirt freshman campaign. The sophomore from Erding, Germany produced 30 combined wins in singles (16) and doubles (14) last season, and will be looking to make even greater contributions in 2016.

2014-15: REDSHIRT FRESHMAN

Matysova returned to the court as a redshirt freshman in 2015, after having her true freshman season cut short by a knee injury.

Matysova notched a 16-15 singles record that included a 12-10 mark in the spring. She went 3-8 in Big Ten competition. On the doubles court, she managed a 14-18 overall mark that included a 9-14 spring mark and a 2-9 Big Ten record.

Off the court, Matysova was named a Big Ten Distinguished Scholar for her excellence in the classroom. She added academic All-Big Ten honors, while being named to the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the spring of 2015.

2013-14: REDSHIRT

Matysova joined the Huskers in 2014 as one of six newcomers. She played a handful of matches in the fall, posting a 2-4 singles record and 1-4 doubles mark before suffering a knee injury that kept her out of spring competition. Matysova redshirted in the spring while recovering from her ACL injury.

Matysova earned spots on the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in the fall and spring semesters of 2013-14 to help the Huskers earn their fourth consecutive Herman Award for the highest cumulative team GPA among all Nebraska women's sports.

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Matysova won a U21 Regional Championship at the age of 13 going on to reach her highest U16 ranking of No. 11 at the age of 14. In January 2011, Matysova won an ITF tournament in Poland.

Matysova achieved her highest national ranking at No. 97 in 2011-12. Matysova attained her highest ITF ranking in 2011 at No. 384.

PERSONAL

A native of Erding, Germany, Katerina Matysova is the daughter of Jareslav and Romana Matysova and has one younger sister, Lucie, 16. Katerina is majoring in psychology at Nebraska.

WHY KATERINA CHOSE NEBRASKA

"Nebraska is a great university and I heard a lot of amazing things about it from my former teammate and friend Izabella Zgierska, who played for the Huskers."

2015-16 OUTLOOK

Paula Del Cueto Castillo hopes to make an immediate impression on the court for the Huskers as a true freshman in 2016.

One of the top junior players in Spain, Del Cueto Castillo chose to join the Nebraska women's tennis team after climbing as high as No. 35 nationally in Spain.

"Paula is a phenomenal doubles player with tremendous instincts. She has a very heavy forehand and a biting slice backhand that is difficult for opponents to handle," Nebraska Coach Scott Jacobson said. "Her fitness has improved dramatically this fall in addition to her lower body strength. We believe she will have a positive affect on our team in both singles and doubles this coming spring."

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Del Cueto Castillo was highly decorated as a junior player in Sevilla, Spain. Aggressively pursuing her goal of playing professional tennis in the future, Del Cueto Castillo claimed championships in the Andalucía Junior Doubles (2013), ITF Valladolid (2014, 2015), and Junior Regional Andalucía (2015) competitions. She was also a Spanish Championship of Juniors doubles finalist in 2013.

Del Cueto Castillo snagged rankings in WTA Professional Doubles (No. 929), the Spain Open Division (No. 54), and the Spain Junior Division (No. 35) and as No. 1 Junior in Andalucía in 2014 and 2015.

HONORS & AWARDS

Two-Time Georgia State Champion (2013, 2014)
Three-Time Marist School Team Captain (2013, 2014, 2015)
Marist School Singles Player of the Year (2014)
Marist School Most Valuable Player (2014)

2015-16 OUTLOOK

Elizabeth Gould is working to find ways to contribute both on and off the court as a freshman for the Huskers in 2015-16. Gould came to Nebraska after a solid high school career in Georgia, where she displayed both talent and leadership on the court.

Nebraska Coach Scott Jacobson said the two-time state champion could contend for a spot in the Husker lineup in both singles and doubles as a true freshman.

"Elizabeth showed improvement the entire fall. Her greatest strength is her forehand, and she has focused on making it more of a weapon by using it on optional balls in the middle of the court," Jacobson said. "In addition, Elizabeth has tremendous composure while competing and never seems to get rattled. On a doubles court, she shows good decision-making as well as being very instinctive while crossing at the net. She has tremendous upside and we believe the future holds tremendous promise for E.G."

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Gould went 21-0 as a junior at the Marist School in Atlanta to capture her second individual Georgia state championship. A three-time team captain at the Marist School, Gould was voted team MVP and the singles player of the year following her junior season in 2014.

Along with claiming a pair of singles state titles, Gould was also a state runner-up. In addition to earning four letters in tennis at the Marist School, Gould also coached and played for the Universal Tennis Academy for Coach Ross Beall.

PERSONAL

Elizabeth is the daughter of Thad and Mary Gould. Elizabeth has one sister, Taylor.

Elizabeth is majoring in business management in the College of Business Administration at Nebraska.

WHY ELIZABETH CHOSE NEBRASKA

"I chose Nebraska because the campus immediately felt like home. I knew it was going to be a place where I could learn, grow, have many opportunities, and create relationships with many great people.

The new tennis facility is absolutely amazing, and I am so excited to work with such a great group of girls and coaches."

2015-16 OUTLOOK

Sydney Harlow joined the Nebraska women's tennis team after an impressive prep career at Omaha Westside High School. Harlow captured the Nebraska Class A singles championship in 2014, after taking second in 2013 and third in 2012.

The 2014 Missouri Valley Tennis Player of the Year, Harlow could make an immediate impact in Nebraska's singles and doubles lineup in 2016.

"Sydney is a strong baseliner with good instincts. She also is very quick on the court," Nebraska Coach Scott Jacobson said. "The fall offered her an opportunity to grow her net game and become more comfortable on a doubles court. The greatest area of emphasis this fall has been focusing on creating and maintaining positive energy while competing."

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Harlow was a consistent force during her high school career at Omaha Westside. She claimed a trio of top-three finishes at the Nebraska Class A singles championships from 2012 to 2014. Harlow captured the state title at No. 1 singles as a junior in 2014, after earning a runner-up finish in 2013. She took third in singles in 2012. Harlow was also the Missouri Valley Tennis Player of the Year in 2014.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Nicholas and Marie Harlow, Sydney was born on July 28, 1997, in Omaha. Sydney has one sister, Dylan, 21, who also attends Nebraska. She plans to major in communications at Nebraska.

During her summers, Sydney enjoys playing tennis and traveling, while spending time playing guitar and piano.

WHY SYDNEY CHOSE NEBRASKA

2015-16 OUTLOOK

As one of four Husker freshmen, Vasanti Shinde joined the Nebraska women's tennis team after an impressive junior career in Pune, India. Shinde, who was ranked as the No. 158 Junior by the ITF, captured singles and doubles championships at the Walchand Cup Under-16 National Junior Series. Shinde hopes to help the Huskers in both singles and doubles play.

"Vasanti comes to Nebraska with plenty of international experience. Her greatest strength is the heaviness with which she strikes the ball off of both her forehand and backhand side," Nebraska Coach Scott Jacobson said. "A great benefit to her is her lefty spin serve as well as her attacking style of play. Vasanti has shown great promise this fall, and we feel she can help the program in a big way this coming spring."

BEFORE NEBRASKA

Shinde, who began playing tennis at age 7, claimed both a singles and doubles win at the 2012 Walchand Cup Under-16 National Series junior tennis tournament to walk away with the Double Crown championship title.

Vasanti also earned a national ranking of No. 158 on the ITF Junior list.

PERSONAL

The daughter of Pratap and Lalita Shinde, Vasanti was born on Feb. 18, 1997, in Pune, India. Vasanti has one brother, Sumeet, 22.

Vasanti plans to double-major in economics and marketing at Nebraska.

WHY VASANTI CHOSE NEBRASKA

"I chose Nebraska because of the faculty, the team of coaches and the team."

Izabella Zgierska was the only senior on Nebraska's 2015 roster. She ended her season with an 11-12 singles record that included a 2-9 mark in Big Ten play. Off the court Zgierska claimed academic All-Big Ten honors for the third straight year.

The Nebraska women's tennis team continued to progress in 2014-15, producing a four-match improvement in the win column over its 2013-14 campaign. The 2014-15 Huskers finished with a 12-12 overall record.

The Huskers, who featured just one senior in Izabella Zgierska, received outstanding leadership on and off the court from Zgierska and juniors Maggy Lehmicke, Mackenna Maddox and Lauren Wagner.

The Big Red rebuilding process on the court after its 2013 NCAA Sweet 16 and Big Ten title run, continued alongside the building process of a new home at the Sid and Hazel Dillon Center.

Nebraska did not compete in the pristine new facility that features six indoor courts and 12 championship outdoor courts, but the Huskers were able to train and practice at the indoor facility in the spring.

The Huskers opened the spring season with a 14-match home stand with NU earning an impressive start to the season. Nebraska rolled to 10 consecutive wins on its way to an 11-3 record before hitting the road to East Lansing, Mich., for the first road match of the season.

The Big Red began its 10-match win streak with a 5-2 victory over Air Force on Jan. 24, followed by a 6-1 win over Army. The next weekend brought more wins, as the Huskers defeated Drake, 5-2, and grabbed a 6-1 victory over Eastern Michigan.

NU delivered a dominating 7-0 sweep over Colorado State on Valentine's Day before rounding out the weekend with a 4-3 win over Missouri. The Tigers had come to Lincoln after recording three consecutive 7-0 wins.

The victories kept coming for NU, as the Huskers earned a pair of 6-1 wins over Wyoming (Feb. 20) and Illinois State (Feb. 22). Nebraska then hosted St. John's for a mid-week match with the Big Red bettering the Red Storm, 5-2.

The Huskers faced their first ranked opponent when No. 51 Denver came to Lincoln. The Pioneers left with a loss, while the Huskers improved to 10-0 on the season.

Nebraska suffered its first loss of 2015, when No. 29 Wichita State battled its way to a 4-0 victory on March 1.

Despite the loss, Nebraska entered the ITA national rankings the following week at No. 53, and bounced back into the win column with a 5-2 victory over Georgia State on March 6.

The Huskers rounded out their season-opening home stand by beginning Big Ten Conference play. In their first match with No. 29 Purdue, the Boilermakers notched a 5-1 win, before No. 43 Maryland posted a 7-0 sweep. The conference losses dropped the Huskers to No. 61 in the national rankings.

After playing their first 14 matches of the season at home, the Huskers hit the road for the first time to take on No. 73 Michigan State. The Spartans battled back from 3-0 deficit to beat the Huskers, 4-3.

The Big Red returned home on March 20 to battle No. 52 Indiana. The Hoosiers and Huskers went head-to-head with the decision coming down to the final match, ending in another narrow 4-3 loss for NU.

Nebraska rallied for a 4-3 win over Loyola Marymount in Los Angeles, Calif., to notch its first road win of the season on March 25. The victory opened a four-match road swing that included another narrow 4-3 loss at Iowa.

The road trip concluded with a 6-1 setback at Wisconsin and a 5-2 loss at Minnesota.

The Huskers returned to Lincoln for their final home matches of the season, as they hosted No. 64 Penn State and No. 18 Ohio State on April 10 and 12. Nebraska dropped a 4-3 nail-biter to the Nittany Lions followed by a 7-0 sweep from the Buckeyes to round out the season's home matches.

The dual against Ohio State served as Senior Day for Izabella Zgierska. As NU's lone senior, Zgierska played every match at the No. 2 singles spot, tallying an 11-12 overall mark, while going 2-9 in Big Ten action.

Zgierska paired with Mary Hanna for the majority of the spring season. The duo fueled NU's doubles success with their impressive 14-7 record, while going 4-7 against Big Ten opponents. Zgierska finished her collegiate career with 101 combined victories, including 47 singles and 54 doubles wins.

The Big Red took the road for their final matches of the season, falling to No. 51 Illinois (6-1) and No. 27 Northwestern (7-0).

Despite a challenging Big Ten Conference season that included a quartet of 4-3 losses in 11 matches, the Huskers continued their success on and off the court.

Maggy Lehmicke, a 2014-15 Husker captain, earned Nebraska's Big Ten Sportsmanship Award. Seven Huskers, including Lehmicke, Izabella Zgierska, Lauren Wagner, Lisa Andersson, Mary Hanna, Katerina Matysova and Spurti Shivalingaiah added academic All-Big Ten honors to lead the Big Red in the classroom.

Several Huskers also claimed awards from the University of Nebraska Athletic Department during "A Night at the Lied" annual academic awards banquet in April. Mackenna Maddox captured a prestigious Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award for her exceptional leadership, dedication to community service and positive influence on the team.

Maddox also was joined by teammate Mary Hanna on the 2015 Tom Osborne Citizenship Team, which recognizes student-athletes who complete a minimum of six service projects, and/or mentor in the academic calendar year, while being in good academic and athletic standing.

Maggy Lehmicke and Lisa Andersson propelled NU to a 44-28 doubles record during the spring season. The duo earned a 15-4 mark, while going 10-1 in Big Ten Conference action at the No. 2 spot.

THIS IS NEBRASKA WOMEN'S TENNIS

The Nebraska Women's Tennis Program welcomes the dawn of a new era in 2016 with the opening of the Sid and Hazel Dillon Tennis Center on the University of Nebraska campus.

The Dillon Center features world-class competitive and training facilities to put the Husker program on track to compete with the nation's best.

The complex showcases 12 outdoor and six indoor courts, while featuring combined seating for 1,400 spectators.

SID AND HAZEL DILLON TENNIS CENTER

The Nebraska women's tennis program entered a new era in 2015-16 with the move into the Sid and Hazel Dillon Tennis Center. Located just north of Nebraska's Innovation Campus, the elite practice and competition facility will rank among the nation's best. The tennis facility includes 12 well-lit outdoor courts and six indoor courts with Olympic-quality surfaces. The indoor facility also has coaches offices, spacious team locker and meeting rooms, and convenient athletic medicine areas.

The indoor and outdoor tennis areas of the Sid and Hazel Dillon Tennis Center also feature combined seating for 1,400 spectators and plenty of more space for fans to stand and cheer on all the Huskers. The world-class facility should help the Husker tennis programs continue their rise in national prominence in the years to come.

TRAINING, COMPETING FOR TITLES

Top and Middle Left: An elevated walkway provides Nebraska tennis fans with a unique view of action and easy access to seating at any one of the 12 outdoor tennis courts. Multiple scoreboards and ample lighting are just a few of the fabulous fan amenities of the complex.*

Middle Right and Bottom: The Sid and Hazel Dillon Tennis Center includes vibrant new indoor tennis courts. Located off the staircase on the upper level of the complex, fans can enjoy stadium seating and a panoramic view of action on the six full-size indoor courts.*

The University of Nebraska's Soccer and Tennis Complex was dedicated on Friday, Sept. 25, 2015, with a ribbon cutting ceremony in front of the complex, officially marking the dawn of a new era for the Nebraska tennis programs.*

WORLD-CLASS FACILITIES

From training facilities to competition venues, Nebraska's athletic facilities are second-to-none across the collegiate landscape. From Memorial Stadium to Pinnacle Bank Arena to the new soccer/tennis complex which opened in the fall of 2015, Husker student-athletes have the benefits of training and competing in state-of-the-art facilities. Fans across the state and region support Husker Athletics, as football, volleyball, men's and women's basketball and baseball all finished in the top-15 nationally in attendance during the 2014-15 year.

NATIONAL POWERS

The Husker bowling team won its fifth NCAA title since 2004. Nebraska was led by 2015 NCAA Player of the Year Lizabeth Kuhlkin, who finished her career as a four-time All-American.

All-American Kadie Rolfzen led the Huskers to their second straight Elite Eight finish in 2014.

Rachel Martin became Nebraska's most recent individual NCAA champion, winning the smallbore title at the 2015 NCAA Rifle Championships.

I-back Ameer Abdullah was the first Husker male student-athlete to win the Senior CLASS Award in 2014. Abdullah was a second-round pick of the Detroit Lions.

Tanner Lubach was a three-year starter for the Husker baseball team and was one of four Huskers selected in the 2015 MLB Draft.

Kiki Stokes earned All-America honors, setting school records in runs scored and on-base percentage in 2015.

BIG TEN LEADERS

The Husker men's track and field team won the Big Ten Indoor title in 2015. Gary Pepin has guided the Husker track and field programs to 70 conference titles in his tenure at Nebraska.

Ethan Lottman garnered first-team All-America honors in 2015 and was also a second-team CoSIDA Academic All-American.

High jumper James White earned first-team All-America honors during both the indoor and outdoor seasons in 2015.

Terran Petteway was a two-time All-Big Ten performer and scored over 1,000 points during his Husker career.

Wrestler James Green was a four-time All-American and was selected to represent the United States at the 2015 World Championships.

UNMATCHED FAN SUPPORT

Nebraska was the only NCAA Division I program to rank in the top 10 nationally in attendance in football and men's basketball in 2014-15. In addition, the Husker volleyball (first), baseball (11th) and women's basketball programs (11th) all ranked in the top 15 nationally.

ATHLETIC MEDICINE

EXCEPTIONAL CARE FOR STUDENT-ATHLETES

Providing expert care to more than 600 Husker student-athletes, Nebraska features one of the most well-trained and highly skilled athletic medicine staffs in the country.

Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers, Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber, the 2015-16 Nebraska athletic medicine staff consists of five doctors, two therapist/athletic trainers, 11 athletic trainers and seven graduate assistant athletic trainers.

Nebraska's medical facilities have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come. In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, Haymarket Park, the Bob Devaney Sports Center, Pinnacle Bank Arena and the Nebraska Soccer and Tennis Complex all feature athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

CARING FOR HUSKERS

Bottom left: The Lewis Training Table offers buffet-style service for lunch and dinner. Nebraska's nutritionists work with all student-athletes to develop comprehensive nutrition plans.

Bottom right: Nebraska's Athletic Medicine Center features a hydrotherapy area that includes a three-level laned pool. The Hydroworx 1000 Treadmill Pool is equipped with two cameras underwater for evaluation and assessment, while the hot and cold plunge tanks are also available to the Huskers.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

Nebraska increased its nation-leading total of CoSIDA Academic All-America awards to 320, adding six Huskers in 2014-15. Junior guard Shavon Shields (Olathe, Kan.) became NU's first-ever first-team Academic All-American in men's basketball. Senior sprinter John Welk (Bismarck, N.D.), who was Nebraska's Male Student-Athlete of the Year, led three first-team CoSIDA Academic All-Americans for the men's track and field program. Welk, who was honored as the Academic All-American of the Year in men's track and field, was joined by Levi Gipson (Lincoln, Neb.) and Drew Wiseman (Bismarck, N.D.). Junior gymnast Ethan Lottman (Omaha, Neb.) earned second-team Academic All-America status. Sophomore outfielder Ryan Boldt (Red Wing, Minn.) was a third-team Academic All-American in baseball. In 2014-15, Lottman was one of three Huskers to win the NCAA Elite 89 Award, presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals site for each of the NCAA's 89 championship events. Nebraska's other two recipients of the prestigious award were Wiseman and senior thrower Will Lohman (Chewelah, Wash.) who claimed the honors in indoor and outdoor men's track and field, respectively.

Graduation is the ultimate achievement, and 118 Husker student-athletes earned undergraduate and graduate degrees in three commencement exercises at Pinnacle Bank Arena in 2014-15. At the conclusion of the academic year, Nebraska student-athletes posted an impressive 3.155 cumulative GPA.

HONORING ACHIEVEMENT

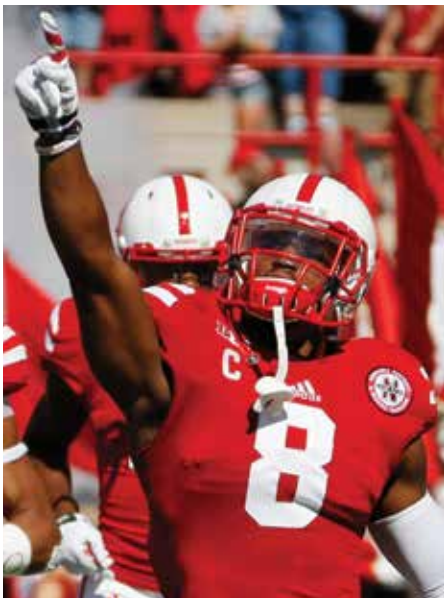
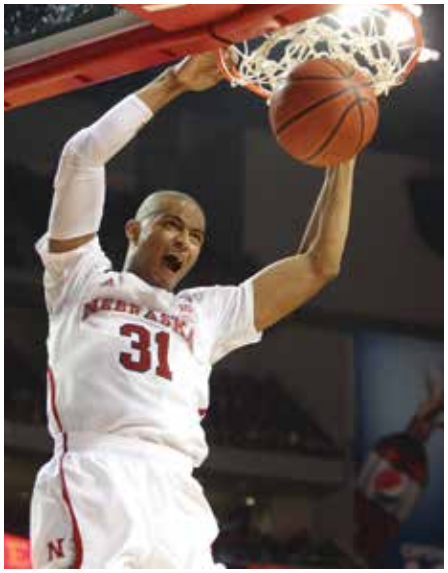
More than 400 student-athletes were honored at the academic banquet, including 68 gold (3.750 to 4.000 GPA), 61 silver (3.500 to 3.749 GPA) and 140 bronze (3.000 to 3.499 GPA) medallion winners. Six Huskers earned Outstanding Scholar Awards, presented to seniors exhausting their eligibility with a cumulative GPA of 3.900 or better. The honorees included: Mark Hilderbrand, John Welk and Will Lohman (pictured above) (Track and Field), Amanda and Jennifer Lauer (Women's Gymnastics), and Josh Reinertson (Men's Golf).



In 2014-15, 118 Huskers earned their college degrees, including senior Ameer Abdullah (pictured above). Abdullah became the first Husker male athlete in history to earn a prestigious Senior CLASS Award, which is presented annually to the sport's most outstanding senior student-athlete. The award recognizes achievements in four areas of excellence – classroom, community, character and competition. Previous Husker Senior CLASS Award winners were Kelsey Griffin (Women's Basketball, 2010) and Gina Mancuso (Volleyball, 2012).



In 2015, Shavon Shields became the first Husker men's basketball player to earn first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors. Shields was one of six Husker student-athletes across all sports to capture CoSIDA Academic All-America awards in 2014-15, pushing Nebraska's nation-leading total to 320 Academic All-American awards all time.

The NCAA established the Elite 89 Award to recognize individuals who reach the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level while also achieving the highest academic standard among their peers. Ethan Lottman (Men's Gymnastics), Drew Wiseman (Indoor Track, pictured) and Will Lohman (Outdoor Track) won the awards for the Huskers in 2015.

ACADEMIC EXPERIENCE

"I've had the privilege to tour the new soccer/tennis complex. I literally was awestruck with everything that I saw. What an incredible facility and what a powerful recruiting tool this will be for future student-athletes. They've built such an incredible indoor and outdoor tennis facility. It reminded me of how awestruck I was when I was recruited."

Liz (Mooney) Shaffer
1986 NCAA Women's Tennis All-American
2015 Nebraska Athletics Hall of Fame Inductee

The athletic academic unit, located in the Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex, provides personal and academic support to ensure that student-athletes will get the most out of their years as Huskers. Featuring one of the most innovative and comprehensive academic support systems in the country, Nebraska is dedicated to helping its student-athletes become outstanding leaders in their chosen fields. The academic support team is composed of 14 full-time staff members and is certified by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) as meeting the standards established by the N4A.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING
Seven academic counselors, three learning specialists and two assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor continuing eligibility and progress toward graduation.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT
A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support from approximately 120 tutors on staff is available from day one up to college graduation in all subject areas. The tutorial program is certified as a model tutoring program by the College Reading and Learning Association.

STUDY HALL
Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the D.J. Sokol Enrichment Center within the Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student-athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall also may be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING
Academic support staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes and a select group of returning student-athletes. Student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information, and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS
Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach. Learning specialists are available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting psychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION
Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators, and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING
Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES
The Herman Student Life Complex has two computer labs available for student-athletes. The Scott Technology Center features two tech tables for use on group computer projects and group study sessions. Additionally, each student-athlete is provided a laptop for use throughout their academic career at Nebraska.

Construction was completed in the fall of 2010 on the Nebraska Student Life Complex, which nearly tripled the size of NU's previous academic space. The Dick and Peg Herman Family Student Life Complex also features a new technology center and a dedicated Life Skills area and the Papik Computer lab (left).

STUDENT-ATHLETE LIFE

Nebraska Athletics is one of the few self-sustaining intercollegiate athletic programs in the country. Nebraska is a leader in providing all the resources and support necessary for student-athletes to become successful in Academics, Athletics and Life. Nebraska will continue to strategically plan for avenues to strengthen the resources to support more than 600 Husker student-athletes.

In August of 2014, the NCAA Division I Board of Directors restructured the way member institutions and conferences govern themselves. Nebraska has a great history and tradition of providing first-class benefits and support to its student-athletes. The change in governance, and subsequent legislation, has paved the way for Nebraska to enhance the benefits and experiences for student-athletes even more. A few examples of these enhanced benefits are:

- All scholarship student-athletes across all sports will have their scholarship calculated based on the full cost of attendance.
- Every student-athlete (including Jessica Shepard pictured above with Director of Athletics Shawn Eichorst) will receive an Apple MacBook Air laptop computer to enhance their learning opportunities.
- Nebraska has increased resources and support in all academic and performance-related areas including Academic Services, Life Skills, Athletic Medicine, Athletic Training, Strength and Conditioning, Nutrition and Dining Services.
- Nebraska created the first-known post-eligibility benefit program, where every student-athlete, who has graduated and exhausted their athletic eligibility, will have the opportunity to pursue an internship, participate in a study abroad program or attend graduate school in the University system with Nebraska's support.

LIFE SKILLS AWARDS
Mackenna Maddox-Herr (left) earned a prestigious Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award in 2015. She joined fellow Husker women's tennis senior Maggy Lehmicke (right), who claimed a Nebraska Student-Athlete HERO Leadership Award in 2014. The award is presented by Director of Athletics Shawn Eichorst to deserving student-athletes across all sports at Nebraska who are the most committed to community service.

NEBRASKA LIFE SKILLS

BIG RED GO GLOBAL

Nebraska traveled to Guatemala over the summer in 2015 in a group called "No Filter" including 18 student-athletes and two N Club alumni, one of which was former women's tennis All-American Mary Weatherholt (pictured below middle). While abroad, the Huskers spent five days constructing a soccer/basketball sports area and amphitheater for El Esfuerzo Chimaltenango. The group also participated in cultural activities that included salsa dancing, hiking a cultural landmark, riding horseback up an active volcano, having a soccer tournament and hand-making chocolate.

A TRADITION OF STUDENT-ATHLETE EXCELLENCE

Nebraska Coach Scott Jacobson presented current Huskers Spurti Shivalingaiah, Mackenna Maddox-Herr and Katerina Matysova with the letter jackets at the 2015 N Club induction ceremony. Coach Jacobson and the current Husker letterwinners were joined by former Husker Ann (Swanson) Bartek and Nebraska Executive Associate Athletic Director for Performance and Strategic Research Steve Waterfield.

NEBRASKA LIFE SKILLS PROGRAM

Widely regarded as the premier and most comprehensive Life Skills program in college athletics, the Husker program is committed to providing proactive education, resources and support throughout college and beyond, promoting total person development and preparation for life after sports. Five full-time staff members and one graduate assistant coordinate a wide array of services benefiting Husker student-athletes.

PROACTIVE EDUCATION

The Life Skills team organizes orientations designed to acclimate student-athletes to college life. All new student-athletes also attend the fall semester Husker Life Seminar. The interactive class promotes responsible decision-making, personal brand, financial literacy, leadership, involvement and service.

INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS

Every Nebraska student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills Coordinator who will arrange multiple individual meetings throughout the academic year aimed at enhancing personal and career development. The meetings help each student-athlete identify a career focus and implement a plan to increase career marketability.

CAREER COMMITMENT

Annually, Nebraska Life Skills organizes a Student-Athlete Career Fair, Networking Night (pictured bottom right) and other career events aimed at connecting Huskers with companies desiring competitive, hard-working, accountable candidates. Athlete Network and Husker Hire Link provide opportunities to explore career opportunities across the country.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Nebraska student-athletes readily accept the role-model challenge collectively giving more than 6,500 hours annually to impact thousands, both young and old alike, throughout the entire state of Nebraska. Outreach events include but are not limited to hospital visits, mentoring, school assemblies, statewide rallies, Make-A-Wish, NFL Play 60 and Husker Heroes.

LEADERSHIP

Nebraska Life Skills provides student-athletes with endless opportunities to enhance leadership skills while distinguishing themselves from the competition. Student-athletes can be members of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Uplifting Athletes Chapter or Husker Distinction Council. On campus, UNL offers more than 600 recognized student organizations allowing athletes to collaborate with other campus leaders for a common goal. Annually, Nebraska Life Skills funds and coordinates a one week service abroad trip allowing nearly 20 student-athletes to come together for a common goal while enriching cultural competencies.

RECOGNITION

In 2014-15, a record 37 Husker Football student-athletes were named to both the Tom Osborne Citizenship Team and Brook Berringer Citizenship Team for completing a minimum of six service projects in the calendar year. There are a host of other recognition opportunities both at the institutional, Big Ten and NCAA level which all reflect on the high ideals, character and servant leadership nurtured through community involvement.

POST-ELIGIBILITY OPPORTUNITIES

Effective December 2015 and beyond, student-athletes who letter and graduate will have a three-year window to benefit from one of three post-eligibility opportunities each valued at $7,500. Upon completion of required seminars, graduates can either study abroad, complete an internship or begin graduate school within the University of Nebraska system.

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration.

Nebraska, which joined the Big Ten Conference in 2011, is a member of the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, a consortium of Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which has generated unique opportunities for students and faculty by sharing expertise, leveraging resources and collaborating on programs.

CHAMPIONS IN ATHLETICS, ACADEMICS, LIFE

The Nebraska women's tennis program has established itself as a national contender. In 2013, the Huskers advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 and played host to the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the first time. It was Nebraska's sixth NCAA appearance in an eight-year span.

Coach Scott Jacobson, who is in his 25th season as the winningest coach in Nebraska tennis history. He is helped 2013 All-American Mary Weatherholt to a second-place finish at the 2013 NCAA Singles Championship. Weatherholt added an NCAA Elite Eight finish alongside fellow 2013 All-American Patricia Veresova in doubles. Weatherholt also captured Nebraska's nation-leading 17th NCAA Top Ten Award, after being named Nebraska's Female Student-Athlete of the Year.

Left: Mary Weatherholt set the all-time record for career wins at 208, the first and only women's player in Nebraska history to surpass the 200-win mark. Weatherholt was the 2013 NCAA Singles runner-up, 2013 NCAA/ITA All-American in both singles and doubles, Big Ten Women's Tennis Athlete-of-the-year in both 2012 and 2013 and earned the NCAA Top Ten Award for her performance on the court, in the classroom and community.
